

WHAT IT WILL DO

Work of Congress Marked Out for the Week

SILK CULTURE AND FREE SILVER

Congress Will Adjourn to Pay the Last Tribute of Respect to the Late Senator Barbour.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Pressing questions of revenues and expenditures are likely to occupy the attention of the senate all the time of the coming week that can be devoted to legislation. Tomorrow the senate will undoubtedly adjourn upon the announcement of Senator Barbour's death. Tuesday will be broken in upon by the funeral services of the deceased Virginian, so that little time will be left for public business. It is an almost unprecedented occurrence to have two senators' funerals in the senate chamber in the same session. The discussion of the twelve-million-dollar naval appropriation bill for a battleship, the Monitor, and four light gun boats, will be resumed as the first business. That bill disposed of the $22,740,000 river and harbor bill will follow. These two measures and the considerations of revenue and increased action which they involve will probably occupy the balance of the week and leave little room for the special orders. There are, first, a bill abolishing compulsory state pilotage, a measure in which Mr. Frye, chairman of the committee on commerce, takes strong interest, which he has unsuccessfully tried to push through the last three congresses, and which he now desires the senate to take early action upon it, as it is his purpose to leave the city on private business as soon as it is disposed of. Next comes the foreign relations bill to give the court jurisdiction of violations of the treaty rights of aliens, which runs counter to state right theories of some of the senators, and will be opposed on that ground.

For Experimental Silk Culture. After that Mr. George of Mississippi has a notice of an intention to call up a bill which appropriates $25,000 for the establishment of five experimental silk culture stations—a measure which has also been passed during the last session. Last on the list is the bill reported from the judiciary committee by Mr. Blaine, Missouri, relating and readjusting the compensation of all the district attorneys, an important measure which can scarcely get through at this advanced stage of the session. If the present intention of the chairman of the committee on appropriations is carried out, the house this week will devote all its time to the consideration of adjournment bills.

Mr. Hollman said today that, owing to the funeral of Senator Barbour tomorrow, no business would be transacted until Tuesday. Then he would ask the house to resume consideration of the sundry civil bill, continuing from day to day until a conclusion is reached. Then he would bring up the proposed bill and fortification bills in the order named. It was possible, he said, but not probable, that all three of these would be disposed of in the house before the week ends.

Free Coinage of Silver. Before the consideration of the sundry civil bill proceeded very far Mr. Livingston, democrat, of Georgia, will propose an amendment to the section covering the appropriations for the mint providing for the free coinage of silver. This amendment, which was introduced yesterday, but afterwards withdrawn for the reason that it made the criticism that it did not pertain to the subject set under discussion. There is but little likelihood of a general silver debate being precipitated thereby, as the amendment will certainly be met by a point order and be objected to on the ground that it is not germane to the measure. When the sundry civil bill has been disposed of Mr. Hatch will endeavor to bring up the anti-option bill, but as the late Senator expected the house to support him in his demand for consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. The resolution to expunge one of the speeches of Representative Walker of Massachusetts because of alleged misstatements, not to say complimentary, expressions regarding his mugwump colleagues from that state is the special order for tomorrow, but it will probably fail to come up for want of time. What will become of it in that case cannot be definitely stated. Another postponement is the most likely solution.

Supreme Court Will Adjourn. WASHINGTON, May 15.—The supreme court will meet tomorrow after a recess of two weeks and if the justices can conclude the announcement of their decisions before the hour fixed for the funeral of the late Senator Barbour, will adjourn for the summer to meet again on the second Monday of October.

Bishop Keane Will Officiate. WASHINGTON, May 15.—Bishop Keane of the Catholic university of this city, at the request of the family of the late Senator Barbour, will conduct the funeral services over the remains of Senator Barbour in the senate tomorrow.

Only a Bluff. WASHINGTON, May 15.—In a letter to Secretary Blaine Dr. D. J. McGowan, a Chinese missionary says he does not apprehend that the threats of reprisals that have been heard are well founded.

MR. BARCROFT TRANSFERRED. He is Made Consul from Librarian of the State Department.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Frederick A. Barcroft has been nominated to be United States consul at Brunswick, Germany, at salary of $2500 and fees, amounting in all to about $6000. He is the only remaining chief of bureau appointed under the Cleveland administration. Three or four days ago Mr. Barcroft was much surprised at the currency of a rumor in the department that his dismissal had been resolved upon and that his successor was already commissioned. With a view of obtaining the facts and if charges of any sort had been made against Mr. Barcroft, Representative Fitch of New York, a personal friend, called upon

KILLED BY A HAG

Terrible Crimes of an Aged German Infant Farmer

KILLED FIFTY-EIGHT BABIES

To Conceal Their Mothers' Illicit Loves. Many Women of Wealth and Rank Implicated in the Murders.

BERLIN, May 15.—An aged nurse named Fraulein Myer, residing at Bockenheim, a suburb of Frankfurt, has been arrested charged with causing the death of fifty-eight infants. The alleged crimes extend over a considerable length of time. Several wealthy and aristocratic ladies of Frankfurt are to be accused of complicity in the baby farmer's criminal operations. The arrest has caused a tremendous sensation here as well as at Frankfurt, especially as it has become known that a woman of high standing in society are implicated in the murders. Threats of lynching are freely indulged in, and it is hardly probable that the law will be allowed to take its course.

FORTUNE BY QUACKERY.

Gatchowsky's "Vitaline Cure" Exposed as a Gross Fraud.

BERLIN, May 15.—Before the "Vitaline cure" killed General Gresser, the prefect of St. Petersburg, and others high in Russian society, analysts made in Berlin laboratories showed that the remedy was composed of a simple combination of borax and glycerine, almost without effect for good or evil. The disclosures in regard to "Vitaline" have checked its use in Germany. The strongest protests of the medical profession have been directed against the Russian belief that it is a panacea for tuberculosis, gout and debility. Its inventor, Gatchowsky, declared that he procured the secret of its composition from a Chinese savant. He boasted that the medicine had miraculous qualities, curing every malady and restoring youth. His unbounded assurance, supported by some seeming cures, gave "Vitaline" immense vogue. Ministers, generals and the officers of the staff could be seen mingling with workmen at Gatchowsky's reception rooms. Gatchowsky took weekly installments from the poor. He applied his remedy by subcutaneous injections in some cases and internally in others. The list of cures included many affirming that their maladies had gone under the treatment until the incidents of the General Gresser and General Baranoff affairs pricked the bladder. When the priest searched the quack's house they found besides bankbooks showing heavy bank accounts, 5000 rubles in cash, money which he had taken and hastily thrown in a box.

BEATING TO CURE HYSTERIA. A Doctor Accused of Malpractice and Sent to Jail. BERLIN, May 15.—A trial that has created intense interest in medical circles has just been concluded at Cassel, capital of Hesse-Nassau. Dr. Wenderfeld, director of the hospital for nervous diseases at that place, was charged with maltreating a patient, the wife of Consul-General Zachmann. The director admitted that he had boxed Mrs. Zachmann's ears, beat her with a stick and whipped her by means of a belt. The punishment, he contended, was the best treatment for hysteria, and everything he had done was for her benefit. The courts decided that the accused was guilty of maltreatment and sentenced him to three months' imprisonment.

LABOR DEMONSTRATION. Speeches Made by John Burns and Other Prominent Men. LONDON, May 15.—Twenty thousand men attended the railway men's demonstration in this city to-day. They paraded to Hyde park, where speeches were made by John Burns, Cunningham Graham and Mr. Tait, the leader of the great Scotch railway strike, and others.

The addresses were moderate in tone, Graham's remarks so contrasting with his conduct in the house of commons, which led to his suspension from that body. The meeting was perfectly orderly, and after adopting ringing resolutions in favor of the eight-hour day the assemblage dispersed.

Discovered Hugo's Manuscript. PARIS, May 14.—The discovery of Victor Hugo's "Journal de L'Exile" together with nearly a thousand letters addressed to the poet from eminent public men of all parts of the world, has caused a great sensation in literary circles. The existence of these manuscripts was hitherto unknown even to M. Hugo's executors. It is supposed that the documents were mislaid in a bureau drawer which was sold after Hugo's death, and the nature of the contents have but lately become known to the purchaser.

Refused to Bless the Banners. PARIS, May 15.—Pere Faugues, cure in St. Pierre, today refused to bless the banners of the Imperial societies, bearing a representation of the Imperial eagle, on the ground that such a blessing would be contrary to the instruction of the Pope's brief, enjoining allegiance to the republic.

Oil Works Destroyed. BERLIN, May 15.—The Valkeas Oil works were destroyed by fire last night, involving a loss of 2,000,000 marks. Two men are missing and are supposed to have perished in the flames.

ELOPED WITH A CHINAMAN. Pretty Grace French and a Brooklyn Laundryman Missing. NEW YORK, May 15.—Miss Grace French has mysteriously disappeared. She is a young and pretty blonde, and lived at No. 4 Auburn park, Brooklyn. Since last Wednesday morning she has not been seen by her relatives, and they have thus far searched for her anxiously but vainly. Edward Lee Tad Wing is also missing. He is a laundryman and has a wife and child in China. Miss French is but 19 years old. She has a father, mother, sister and two brothers living. She

DEATH ON THE RAIL

Five Persons Hurling Into eternity on the Big Four

AND MANY OTHERS INJURED

Terrible Disaster Near Clevela, Ohio. List of the Killed and Injured—Several Persons Reported Missing.

CINCINNATI, May 15.—A frightful collision occurred on the Big Four road near Clevela today, resulting in the death of five persons and the injury of twelve or fifteen. The regular Sunday accommodation, which usually leaves Aurora for Cincinnati at 8.30 a. m. started at 7.30 instead, owing to a change in the schedule which went into effect today. The train consisted of a combination baggage car, smoking car and three coaches. When near Clevela the engineer of the passenger engine saw a freight train approaching, but too late to prevent a collision. The freight crew had forgotten about the change in the schedule, and supposed the track clear. The two engines came together with a terrible crash.

The killed are: William Edwards, freight engineer, Greenburg, Ind.; William Higgs, passenger engineer, Lawrenceburg, Ind.; David Heywood, freight conductor, Indianapolis, Ind.; Hiram Bruce, freight fireman, Greenburg, Ind.; Philip Gubben, baggage master, Lawrenceburg, Ind.

Injured: John Screeder, passenger conductor, Lawrenceburg; Holton Terrell, Lawrenceburg; C. M. Kitchie, Shelbyville; Tim Keefe, freight brakeman, Lawrenceburg; Ed Bass, Chattanooga; J. O. Connelly, Will Cromar, passenger brakeman; Lillie Reading, Aurora, Ind.; Mrs. Moreland, North Bend; George W. Hubber and a little girl.

Several persons are missing and it is thought there are more dead bodies in the wreck.

FATAL RAILROAD WRECK.

One Man Killed and Many Others Seriously Injured.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., May 15.—The fast train on the Norfolk & Western railway, composed of one sleeper and two coaches, a baggage and an express car, which leaves here shortly after 12 o'clock, was wrecked twelve miles south of here this morning by jumping the track and dashing into three loaded freight cars, which were standing on a siding. Conductor Hayes was killed instantly and ten passengers were seriously injured, five of whom will die. Those in the other cars also sustained a severe shock. Several legs and arms were broken and one passenger had to have a leg amputated. The injured were brought back to Hagerstown, where some lie at the Welsh hospital and some at the Baldwin house. One coach and one freight car was smashed to splinters. The accident was due to a defective switch.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., May 15.—A man among the injured is John Hank, aged 19, of Lewistown, Pa., badly injured, will likely die; J. P. Hank, father of above, cut about the head; William Edinger of West Fairfield, Pa., cut about the head and body badly lacerated; B. B. Chaney of St. James' college and a man supposed to be Dr. A. Rogers of Buchanan, Va., badly hurt; Conductor William Hayes, killed, is from Philadelphia.

SERVICES AT ST. MARY'S. Children Make Their First Communion. Impressive Ceremonies. Yesterday was a great day at St. Mary's German Catholic church, west side. At 8.30 mass a class of fifty, twenty-five girls, nineteen boys and adult converts, made their first holy communion, the ceremony being preceded by a solemn renewal of baptismal vows. The sacrament of confirmation was administered at 10.30 by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Richter, who preached an eloquent sermon on "The Duties of a Christian." The Rev. Fr. Schmidt, celebrant of the mass and pastor of the church, also delivered an impressive address appropriate to the occasion, abounding in beautiful thoughts clothed in forcible poetic language. In the afternoon the first communions were invested with the scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, and the impressive ceremonies of the day closed with respect, a short sermon by Fr. Schmidt, the usual May devotions and benediction with the blessed sacrament.

SUNDAY AT THE PARKS.

Small Crowds at the Local Resorts Yesterday.

In spite of lowering weather and a chill in the air which made overcoats a luxury, the electric cars were crowded yesterday with men, women and children bent on a day's outing. John Ball park, with its many natural beauties, heightened by artistic effects, is fast becoming a favorite resort. Wardsburg's band played here yesterday, and a large crowd was present. Reed's lake has ever been a resort to which visitors have flocked by the hundreds, and with the added excitement of a monkey balloon ascension which did not come off owing to the high wind prevailing, this resort had its usual large crowd. No special attractions were offered at North Park, nor was there any special features. But this did not prevent its receiving a full quota of Sunday visitors.

REVISE THE COURSE.

The committee on schools of the board of education will meet Tuesday evening to discuss the proposed revision of the course of study for the high school. The principals of the central and union school buildings will meet this evening to consider the same matter.

WILL ORGANIZE A DEGREE OF HONOR.

Washington lodge No. 141 A. O. U. W. will hold a meeting Tuesday evening in their hall on West Fulton street to organize a degree of honor, an auxiliary to the regular order, to be composed of the lady relatives of the members.

O. R. WILMARTH AND S. A. NERMAN

are having plans prepared for a four-story brick block, to be erected on their vacant lot of Pearl street, near the river.

DR. JACKSON DISCUSSES HIS PRESENT OBSERVANCE

It Need Not Be Puritanical, but Should Not Be Given Up to Ballroom Amusements and Ball Games.

IT WILL SOON BE DEGRADING

The Fountain street Baptist church was crowded to the doors last evening to hear the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Jackson, preach on Sabbath observance. The speaker took as his text the words "The Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath." "Every community," Dr. Jackson, "like every individual, has its peculiar characteristics, which give it marked and unmistakable individuality. A city invariably has a distinct personality, and the difference between cities is not difficult to see. We need not consider the contrasts presented by European and American cities. Let us look at our own city of Grand Rapids. It has a character of its own, and in its splendid and growing commercial life, in its social and intellectual ideals, and in its generous and hearty spirit of hospitality toward the unfortunate. These are all worthy of emulation. But there is one characteristic of our city, which we cannot speak of in words of either pleasure or praise. This characteristic can be noted by every thoughtful person. It is that it is a city of the God-fearing stranger, whom the evil is perhaps even more apparent to us than to those who have come a little bit more. It is an evil that for the time being carries away in its enthusiastic and almost universal observance the better feelings of nearly every citizen.

THE SUMMER SUNDAY.

"I call it the 'Summer Sunday.' Perhaps it is our environment which has fostered the evil into its present sturdy growth. The lakes, the woods, the pavilions all tempt the tired laborer away from the observance of the Sabbath. While it is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath. The church members hasten home from the lake or the park to attend evening services and to whom the observance of the Sabbath is a social evil, only the lower classes are attracted by the 'Summer Sunday,' here all join in the turbulent search for pleasure on the Sabbath